2015 FLANERIE VINEYARD PINOT NOIR

A lifted, perfumed nose boasting a myriad of aromas: raspberry, plum, wild strawberry, violets, and graphite. The medium bodied, yet lean palate is replete with persistent, bright red berry and bakers spice character balancing the firm acidity and refined tannins. Enjoy this wine now or with short term cellaring.

THE FLANERIE VINEYARD

Ribbon Ridge AVA

200-350' Elevation | Eastern Exposure

Marine Sedimentary Soils (Willakenzie Series)

Wadenswil, 667, 777 & Pommard Clones

The Flanerie Vineyard, planted in 2003 sits facing due east on the southern edge of the Ribbon Ridge AVA. The terrain is comprised of a thin layer of topsoil over a deep seam of marine sedimentary motherrock. These dry farmed vines produce intense wines with dark fruit and unique meaty/savory signature.
